INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX CREDIT FOR DONATIONS TO PRIVATE SCHOOL TUITION ORGANIZATIONS: REPORTING FOR 2006 EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- $51,014,815 in donations to private school tuition organizations was reported to the Arizona Department of Revenue for 2006. This is an increase of 20.9% over the $42,192,973 reported for 2005. Part of this growth is due to the increase in the maximum credit amount for married filing joint filers, from $825 to $1,000.
- 73,621 donations to private school tuition organizations were reported, an increase of 6.3% over 2005.
- The Department was aware of 56 school tuition organizations operating in Arizona in 2006, two more than in 2005.
- The average donation in 2006 was $693. This is an increase from the $609 average in 2005, mostly due to the increase in the maximum credit for married filing joint filers.
- Scholarships paid by school tuition organizations in 2006 totaled $40.6 million, a 31.4% increase over the amount of scholarships paid in 2005.
- The number of scholarships paid in 2006 was 24,678, a 9.5% increase over the 22,529 scholarships paid in 2005.
- 357 private schools in Arizona received scholarship money from school tuition organizations, 12 more than last year.
- 2 school tuition organizations gave scholarships to only one private school.
- 8 school tuition organizations gave scholarships to 25 or more private schools.
- The smallest average scholarship paid by a school tuition organization to a school was $60, paid by the Classical Christian Scholarship fund to Trinity Lutheran School in Litchfield Park.
- The largest average scholarship paid by a school tuition organization to a school was $13,450, paid by New Valley Education Partners to the New Way Learning Academy.
- The majority of the scholarships (62.3%) and the scholarship money (66.9%) was paid to schools in Maricopa County.

INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX CREDIT FOR DONATIONS TO PRIVATE SCHOOL TUITION ORGANIZATIONS: REPORTING FOR 2006

Arizona's individual income tax credit for contributions to school tuition organizations, more commonly referred to as the private school tax credit, is governed by A.R.S. §43-1089. School tuition organizations (STOs) must report the following information to the Arizona Department of Revenue by February 28:

1. The name, address and contact name of the STO.
2. The number of contributions received in the previous calendar year.
3. The dollar amount of contributions received in the previous calendar year.
4. The number of children awarded scholarships or grants during the previous calendar year.
5. The dollar amount of scholarships and grants awarded during the previous calendar year.
6. The name and address of each school receiving the scholarships or grant money, along with the number and dollar amount of scholarships or grants provided to each school.

The Arizona Department of Revenue is aware of 56 STOs operating in Arizona in 2006, up from 54 in 2005. The number and amount of donations are set out in the following table. For calendar year 2006, $51.0 million has been reported by 56 STOs, a 20.9% increase over the donations reported for 2005. This increase in donations is in large part due to the increase in the maximum credit amount for married filing joint taxpayers for tax year 2006, $1,000 from $825 in the prior year.

Arizona Christian School Tuition Organization surpassed the Catholic Tuition Organization for the Diocese of Phoenix in amount of donations collected in 2006. Arizona Christian School Tuition Organization reported $10.9 million in donations, 21.4% of the total. The Catholic Tuition Organization of the Diocese of Phoenix reported $10.2 million in donations, 19.9% of the total reported. These two organizations received more than 40% of the total donations. To review the donations reported by each STO, see Appendix I at the end of this report.

STOs reported 24,678 scholarships paid for $40.6 million in 2006, an average of $1,643 per scholarship⁵. This is a 9.3% increase in total scholarships reported over calendar year 2005 and a 19.9% increase in the average scholarship. The following table shows the history of scholarships and grants paid out by STOs, based on information reported to the Department of Revenue. The range of average scholarship amounts paid by the individual STOs is from $293 (Dynamite Montessori Foundation) to $6,907 (New Valley Education Partners⁶). To review the scholarships paid by each STO, see Appendix II at the end of this report.

¹ The maximum donation for taxpayers filing as married filing joint increased to $1,000 from $825.

² The maximum donation for taxpayers filing as married filing joint increased to $825 from $625.

³ The maximum donation for taxpayers filing married filing joint increased to $625 from $500.

⁴ Activity in 1998 was artificially low due to a court case challenging the constitutionality of the credit based on separation of church and state. The credit was determined to be constitutional.

⁵ This does not mean that 24,633 students received scholarships. One student may have received scholarships from more than one STO.

⁶ This STO was formerly New Way Learning Academy School Tuition Organization

⁷ Activity in 1998 was artificially low due to a court case. See Footnote 3.

Of the 52 STOs that actually paid scholarships in 2006 (four reported that they paid no scholarships), 37 increased their average scholarship amount from the prior year.

STOs provided scholarships and grants to 357 private schools throughout Arizona. There were 25 private schools that received scholarship money in 2005 year that did not receive any scholarship money in 2006.

Arizona School Choice Trust provided scholarships and grants to 117 schools, more schools than any other STO. Appendix III, at the end of this report, lists the number of schools to which each STO provided scholarships and how many more or less schools received scholarships from the STO in the prior year. For example, Arizona Adventist Scholarships provided scholarships to 16 schools in 2006, which is the same number as last year. That information is aggregated in the following table.

of private schools	# of organizations giving to this number of private schools
2	12
6-10	7
11-20	9
25 or more	8

As shown above, two STOs gave scholarships to only one private school. Those two STOs are Arizona Lutheran Scholarship Organization and Valley Lutheran Scholarship Organization. Not mentioned in the table above are four STOs that did not pay any scholarships in 2006. Life Development Institute Education Foundation and Pinetop Tuition Support Foundation are new STOs that will be making their first scholarship awards in 2007. Maricopa County Schoolhouse Foundation and Patagonia Scholarship Fund didn't issue any scholarships although they have been collecting donations for more than one year.

Four private schools received scholarship/grant money from eight different STOs. These four private schools were Bourgade Catholic High School (338 scholarships for $760,517), Christ Lutheran School (132 scholarships for $278,414), Paradise Valley Christian Preparatory (283 scholarships for $458,440), and Northwest Christian School in Phoenix (852 scholarships for $1,258,881). The following table shows the number of STOs contributing scholarship/grant money to the private schools.

This many private schools received scholarships or grants from	This many STOs
174	One STO
66	Two STOs
53	Three STOs
29	Four STOs
14	Five STOs
10	Six STOs
7	Seven STOs
4	Eight STOs

In other words, 174 private schools received scholarship/grant money from only one STO. There were 66 private schools that received scholarship/grant money from two STOs.

The smallest average scholarship paid by an STO to one private school was $60 paid by the Classical Christian Scholarship Fund to Trinity Lutheran School in Litchfield Park. The highest average scholarship paid by an STO to one private school was $13,450 paid by New Valley Education Partners to New Way Learning Academy.

The most scholarship/grant money received by one private school from all STOs was $1,257,981 for 851 scholarships ($1,478 average) to Northwest Christian School in Phoenix. Appendix IV lists the 357 private schools that received scholarship/grant money, the number of scholarships, the amount and the average scholarship. This table also shows the percent change in amount of scholarship money received and the percent change in the average scholarship paid if the private school was reported as receiving scholarship money in 2006.

In terms of where the scholarship/grant money went within Arizona, the most money went to schools within the city of Phoenix. Slightly more than 31% of the scholarships went to 78 private schools in Phoenix and about 36% of the money. As would be expected, 62% of all scholarships granted went to schools in Maricopa County and 67% of the money. These are very close to the same percentages as in 2005. Appendix V shows the cities within which the scholarship/grant money was received, the average scholarship and the percent change from 2005. It also shows the rank for 2006 and for 2005, which indicates the city or town with the highest average scholarship (Paradise Valley #1 with an average scholarship of $4,987 as compared to a ranking of 2 in 2005) to the lowest average scholarship (Bylas #62 with an average scholarship of $228).
